We will never name individual children but may name the school featured in the photographs. NB:
The Country Trust cannot, however, be held responsible for images posted by other users.

GDPR

For the purposes of the Data Protection Legislation (General Data Protection Regulation as well as any other laws, regulations, standards and codes relating to data protection), both the photographer and The Country Trust are data controllers. By completing this form, you consent to the photographer and the Country Trust: (a) storing and using copies of the photographs for the purposes described above; (b) storing contact details in their database. I understand that images on websites can be viewed throughout the world and not just in the United Kingdom and that some overseas countries may not provide the same level of protection to the rights of individuals as EU/UK legislation provides. I understand that some images or recordings may be kept permanently once they are published and be kept as an archive. The Country Trust is committed to processing information in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation. The personal data collected on this form will be held securely and will only be used for administrative purposes. You have the right to request to see a copy of the information we hold about you and to request corrections or deletions of the information that is no longer required. You can ask The Country Trust to stop using your images at any time, in which case it will not be used in future publications but may continue to appear in publications already in circulation. If you have concerns about the use of your image this should be raised with the Country Trust: info@countrytrust.org.uk

Consent. To be completed by a person with parental responsibility.

- I hereby consent to photos (including film) to be taken during a Country Trust activity and to be used in the above (1-6) contexts.
- I understand that the school will receive a specific request for filmed images of children to be broadcast on television, and that the school will be informed if interviews with children are to be broadcast on radio.

We will never name individual children but may name the school featured in the photographs. NB: The Country Trust cannot, however, be held responsible for images posted by other users.

GDPR

For the purposes of the Data Protection Legislation (General Data Protection Regulation as well as any other laws, regulations, standards and codes relating to data protection), both the photographer and The Country Trust are data controllers. By completing this form, you consent to the photographer and the Country Trust: (a) storing and using copies of the photographs for the purposes described above; (b) storing contact details in their database. I understand that images on websites can be viewed throughout the world and not just in the United Kingdom and that some overseas countries may not provide the same level of protection to the rights of individuals as EU/UK legislation provides. I understand that some images or recordings may be kept permanently or they are published and be kept as an archive. The Country Trust is committed to processing in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation. The personal data collected will be stored securely and will only be used for administrative purposes. You have the right to request any of the information we hold about you and to request corrections or deletions of information that is no longer required. You can ask The Country Trust to stop using your information at any time in which case it will not be used in future publications but may continue to be used in publications already in circulation. If you have concerns about the use of your image this should be discussed with the Country Trust: info@countrytrust.org.uk

Consent. To be completed by a person with parental responsibility.

- I hereby consent to photos (including film) to be taken during a Country Trust activity and to be used in the above (1-6) contexts.
- I understand that the school will receive a specific request for filmed images of children to be broadcast on television, and that the school will be informed if interviews with children are to be broadcast on radio.
